Description

FSA helped secure financing for the casino expansion. FSA was engaged in May 2019 to help make this cultural acquisition a reality. In November 2019, the transaction was successfully completed.

With the landmarks as a backdrop, Snoqualmie Tribe Vice Chairman Michael Ross speaks Friday to the press and members of the Snoqualmie Nation about the historic agreement to purchase the Salish Lodge & Spa and land surrounding Snoqualmie Falls. Flanking Ross are Snoqualmie Chief Ardy de los Angeles, to his right, and Chairman Robert de los Angeles, on his left. (Steve Ringman / The Seattle Times) Less ^>
